

A Bleum offshore testing center is a team of testing professionals dedicated to one customer working as an extension of the customers in-house project team. Bleum's testing centers support a full range of QA testing services. The primary advantage of a dedicated testing center is performance will continually improve over time as knowledge accumulate within the offshore team. Bleum specializes in building and managing English speaking offshore testing centers in China.

Ensure Quality – Independent

- Verification & Validation
- Unbiased
 - In-phase issue detection and resolution
 - Rigid gating at phase transition

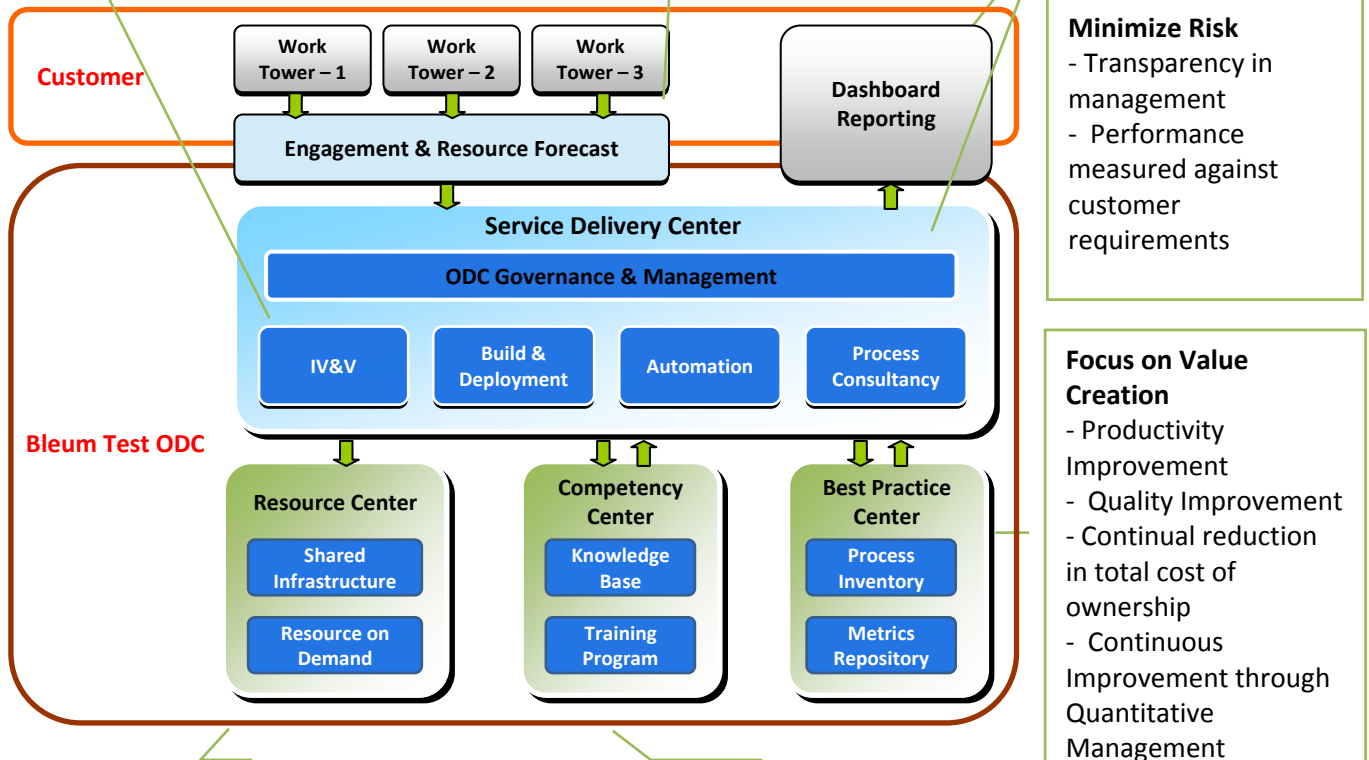

Cost Saving

- High utilization of resource

Ensure Delivery Excellence

- On time
- Within budget
- High quality
- Predictable results

Bleum Testing ODC Service Model

Minimize Risk

- Transparency in management
- Performance measured against customer requirements

Focus on Value Creation

- Productivity Improvement
- Quality Improvement
- Continual reduction in total cost of ownership
- Continuous Improvement through Quantitative Management
- Standardized practices

Cost Saving

- High utilization of shared resources
- Ability to scale team based on resources requirements

Cost Saving

- Accumulated domain and platform knowledge
- Reduced learning curve